Dear Dick:

I received your letter on July 30th. It had been posted on July 17th but there was no explanation for its delay in reaching me. I understand that you have been talking to our training people and they may have interest in talking with you further concerning your lecturing about contracts from the contractor's viewpoint. They told me that you were planning to return to Washington, D.C. in mid-September. I wish you success in your endeavors.

It was nice hearing from you.

Sincerely,

/s/ Harry
